

My Biggest Fear — Life

Life is an illusion
An illusion beyond imagination
An imagination beyond our minds
But still we are a part.

Every single second of the day.

Life consumes us and we consume it
Find a way to escape.

Yet each path will lead us back
From where we began and
The Journey of life will continue forever
Neither death nor suffering,
Has the power to defeat life.

My Solution:

Only one thing which stands firm against it is LOVE. Love which can heal, forgive and revive. Bring back the lost and make life forever mine.
